

lect recording fees of ten dollars (to be divided, accounted for and paid over by the Commission as in the case of a certificate of incorporation).

“(2) When such articles of amendment have been delivered to the State Tax Commission, with the recording fees, for which provision is hereinbefore made, and the bonus tax, if any payable, the amendment or amendments made thereby shall take effect, and not before. A duly certified copy of such articles of amendment from the records of the Secretary of State, the State Tax Commission or the Circuit or Superior Court shall be evidence of the amendment or amendments made thereby. The recording by the State Tax Commission of the articles of amendment shall be conclusive evidence of the payment of the recording fees and the bonus tax, if any, required by law to be paid to it, except in a direct proceeding by the State.”

No. 6—“In Section 8, page 21 of the printed Bill, commencing with the words ‘there shall,’ in line 59 of sub-division (2) of Section 29 of Article 23 of the Annotated Code, as re-enacted thereby, strike out down to and including the word ‘recorded,’ in line 75 thereof, and insert in lieu thereof the following: ‘there shall be attached to said agreement of consolidation the affidavits of the chairmen or the secretaries of the respective stockholders’ meetings, that the same was duly advised by the boards of directors and approved by the stockholders of their respective corporations. Said agreement of consolidation, together with a copy thereof, shall be delivered to the State Tax Commission, which, upon the payment, and not before, of the recording fees for which provision is hereinafter made, and upon the payment, and not before, of the bonus tax prescribed by law, if any payable, as in the case of a certificate of incorporation, shall receive the same for record and endorse thereon the date and time of such receipt and promptly record the same as in the case of a certificate of incorporation. After such recording, the State Tax Commission shall transmit the original agreement of consolidation to the Secretary of State, by whom the same shall be again recorded, and shall transmit a copy thereof duly certified by it to the Clerk of the Circuit or Superior Court (according to the location of the principal office of the corporation as stated in said agreement of consolidation), by whom the same shall be again recorded.’”
