

“On page 9 of the printed Bill, strike out all of Section 18 and insert in lieu thereof the following:

‘Section 18. And be it further enacted, That this charter shall not become effective unless it shall be submitted to the qualified voters living within the prescribed limits of said town of Brentwood, as set forth in Section 2 of this Act, and accepted by a majority of said voters and the majority of said voters at an election held for this purpose on the twelfth day of June, 1916. If said charter is rejected at this election, it shall be again submitted to said voters, as provided for, on the second Tuesday in June, 1917, for adoption or rejection. Provided further, that said election or elections shall be held on said date or dates at such polling place as shall be provided, in accordance with Section 20 of this Act, between the hours of 4 and 7 P. M., and the manner of submission shall be that on the ballots at this election or elections shall be printed the words “For Incorporation,” with a blank square opposite at the right, and the words “Against Incorporation,” with a blank square opposite at the right, and all voters desiring to vote for the provisions of the previous sections of this Act shall place a cross (X) mark in the square opposite the words “For Incorporation,” and all voters desiring to vote against the provisions of the previous sections of this Act shall put a cross (X) mark opposite the words “Against Incorporation.” If at such election a greater number of persons shall vote “For Incorporation” than shall vote “Against Incorporation” then the provisions of the foregoing sections shall become operative.’” [Which was read and adopted.]

“In line 16, Section 19, on page 10 of the printed Bill, after the word ‘qualified,’ add the following: ‘It shall be the duty of the said Oscar M. Link, Harry B. Chase and George B. Cassell, or their successor or successors in office, to determine the qualifications and right of each voter to participate in the special elections provided for in Section 18 of this Act by asking each voter, as he presents himself to cast his ballot, these questions: “Have you been a resident of the town of Brentwood, as set forth in Section 2 of this Act, for the past six months”; and, second, “Are you a legal voter in the elections held under the laws of the State of Maryland.” If said applicant answers both questions in the affirmative, then it shall be the duty of the said Oscar M. Link, Harry B. Chase and George B. Cassell, their successor or successors, to allow said party to cast his ballot, and if either question is answered in the negative, then the party so answering in
