

of five hundred dollars ($500) in any one year. The Commission shall adopt such rules and by-laws for the conduct of its business as it may deem necessary.' "

No. 3—"Strike out all of Section 4 on pages 2 and 3 of the printed Bill, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

'Section 4. The Commission shall appoint an engineer at an annual salary not exceeding $2,500, who shall have had experience in scientific and practical work, relating to fish and shell fish. He shall have charge of surveying and marking natural oyster bars, reserved areas, leased bottoms, crabbing grounds, clam grounds, fish hatcheries, and any other area set apart by the Commission for special purposes. He shall also have immediate charge of the experimental work conducted by the Commissioners in the propagation of oysters, fish and clams, and he shall also be allowed necessary traveling expenses and disbursements incurred in the discharge of his official duties, not to exceed $250 per annum.

'The Commission shall have all the powers and shall assume the duties now performed by the Commander of the State Fishery Force. They shall have charge of all boats now or hereafter composing the State Fishery Force or Oyster Navy; which shall be charged with the execution of the laws relating to oysters, clams, fish, crabs, terrapin, wild ducks, wild geese and all other water game and fur-bearing animals. And they shall also appoint the commanders of the boats of the State Fishery Force, and the commanders shall appoint their respective crews. The salaries of the commanders and crews shall be those now or hereafter provided by law for deputy commanders of the State Fishery Force and the crews of the vessels of the said force.

The Commission shall have all the powers and perform all the duties now performed by the State Game Warden. They shall appoint and issue commissions to such game wardens in various parts of the State as they may deem advisable, with power to revoke and annul any such appointments at his pleasure. The said game wardens shall have all the powers and duties and receive the same compensation as the deputy game wardens now have and receive, or as may be hereafter prescribed by law, and they shall report to the Commission at such times and in such way as the Commission shall designate.' "

No. 4—"On page 4 in line 90 of Section 5 of the printed Bill, after the word 'Commissioners,' strike out the word 'and,' and insert a comma; and on line 91 of said section