INTRODUCTION OF RESOLUTIONS.

The President introduced the following Senate Joint Resolution No. —, requesting the United States Senators and Representatives in Congress from the State of Maryland to invite the members of the United States Senate and the Representatives of the United States in Congress to visit the City of Baltimore on the afternoon of Monday, July 9, 1916, to participate in patriotic services by the Grand Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States of America on the historic slope of Fort McHenry, a United States reservation leased to the State of Maryland, to urge upon the people of the United States of America the adoption of the Bill now before Congress proposing to make "The Star-Spangled Banner" the national anthem:

WHEREAS, The President of the United States, the Vice-President and the members of the Cabinet will be invited to join with the Governor of Maryland, the Mayor of Baltimore city and the mayors of all other cities in the State of Maryland, in this invitation to meet the representatives of the whole people on this historic spot; and

WHEREAS, Because of the disturbed conditions in many of the civilized governments of the world and the unrest and trouble prevailing in our sister republic of Mexico to the south, we believe it would be an opportune time to send a message to the whole people of the Union, calling attention to the immortal words of Francis Scott Key; therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Senators and Representatives in Congress from the State of
