

Which was read.

Mr. Merrick moved to strike out the words "of a general character,"

Which was assented to.

The order, as amended, was then adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hall,

Leave was granted to the Committee on the Judiciary to report a bill repealing the act imposing a tax upon legacies and collateral inheritances and commissions of executors and administrators under a certain amount.

On motion of Mr. Lester,

Leave was granted to the Committee on Corporations to introduce a bill to alter and amend the charter of the Fremont Savings Institution of Baltimore.

Mr. Partridge offered the following order:

Ordered, That a select committee of _____ be appointed to consider the matter of the codification of the laws and the revision and amendment of legal proceedings, as provided for by the constitution of this State, to which shall be referred, when they are presented here, the reports of the commissioners heretofore appointed to perform these duties: and that such select committee have instructions to report to this House the progress they shall make, from time to time, in the consideration of the matters so referred,

Which was read, and ordered to lie over until to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Kildow,

Leave was granted to Messrs. Kildow, Wickes and Frey, to bring in a bill to change the name of the town of Llangollen, in Allegany county, to that of Bloomington.

On motion of Mr. Kildow,

The House adjourned until to-morrow morning, at 11 o'clock.