

Resolved by the House of Delegates of Maryland, That we regret the election, as Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, of Mr. Banks, the recognised advocate of the extreme and factious opinions of the North, and whose sentiments and views are dangerous to the integrity of the Union, and the preservation of its peace and harmony.

Resolved, That we most deeply deplore, that one of the Representatives of a portion of the people of this State, should in such an emergency as the late election of Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, has failed in his high duty to his constituents, and given to our sister States of the South, reasonable ground to apprehend that the people of the city of Baltimore are not with them in sentiment and opinion upon the great issues now before the country.

Resolved, That representing directly the people of Maryland we give our sister states of the South the assurance that Maryland will never falter in her attachment to Southern institutions, or in her maintenance of Southern rights.

Resolved, That regarding the sovereignty of the States, as the great safeguard and protection of our cherished institutions, we will ever indignantly repel the aggressions of Northern fanaticism, and condemn any action of our representatives that directly or indirectly gives countenance and support to the Abolitionists in their war upon the institutions of the South and the integrity of the Union.
