

"Section 7. And be it enacted, That the constitution and by-laws of the said company, shall be made only by the concurrent vote of at least two-thirds of the whole board of directors, exclusive of the President, and any amendment or alteration of the constitution or by-laws, shall be made only by a general meeting of the members of the company, convened in pursuance of public notice, given as in cases of elections for directors, when each member present shall give one vote; and two-thirds of the votes thus given shall be necessary to decide any such amendment or alteration; and any amendment or alteration of the constitution or by-laws that may be thus made, shall be binding on all the members of said company."

Section 8th, line 2nd, strike out the word "may" and insert "shall;"

In 9th line of same section strike out "to;"

Section 5th, line 4th after "William J. Harrison" insert "A. R. Sollers, Joseph Griffiths, James T. Wall, Hammond Stewart, Lewis Griffith, and John T. Turner."

Strike out section 12, and insert:

"Section 12. And be it further enacted that any guardian of an infant or infants may insure, under the provisions of this act, any houses, buildings, or personal property; which the ward or wards of such guardian may own, either jointly with others, or in severality; and such insurance shall have the same lien and the same effect in all respects as if such minors were of full age and had made such insurance themselves; provided the consent of the Orphans' Court of the city or county in which said guardian or guardians were appointed shall be first had and obtained."

Section 13. And be it further enacted, That in any suit at law or in equity, by or against said company, no member thereof shall on that account, if he be not a party to such suit in his or her individual capacity, be incompetent as a witness for or against said company.
