Stone,	Roberts,

The said bill was then sent to the Senate.

The Speaker desired it to be entered upon the Journal that he had voted against the amendment of Mr. Hall, because it gave retailers under that amendment, the rights and privileges held under an ordinary's license.

And Mr. Dowell desired it to be entered on the Journal that he had voted against the amendment of Mr. Hall, because it gave retailers under that amendment the rights and privileges held under an ordinary's license.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered a bill entitled, an act to secure the payment of debts contracted for materials furnished for work done in the building, repairing or equipping of canal boats or vessels of any kind used or intended to be used as carriers of coal, or other freight or passengers on the Chesapeake and Ohio
