

Mr. Daniel offered the following amendment:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

"Section 8. And be it enacted, That all persons applying for permission to visit said penitentiary, with the exception of the Governor of the State, Mayor of the city, Judges and State's Attorneys of the Courts of this State, members of the Legislature and the husband or wife, or other relations of the first degree, of any convict, shall pay to the warden, or his agent, twenty-five cents for every such admission."

The amendment was assented to.

Mr. Stubbs offered the following amendment:

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

"Physicians of the State of Maryland or any other State."

Which was rejected.

The said bill was then ordered to be engrossed for its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Daniel,

The said bill was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

By the Senate,

March 5th, 1856.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received a communication from the gentlemen appointed to codify the laws, suggesting that the only means by which their work can be examined is by a committee in the recess, believing that a proper examination of such a work could not be made during any of the regular sessions of the Legislature, and being anxious to have the code completed according to the requirements of the Constitution, we propose the appointment of a Joint Committee to consider the subject. We have appointed on the part of the Senate Messrs. Webster, Schley, and Wallace.

By Order,

C. HARWOOD, Secretary.

Mr. Partridge offered the following message:

By the House of Delegates,

March 5th, 1856.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have received the message from your Honorable Body,
