Mr. Merrick offered the following resolution:

Whereas, the continuance of this session of the Legislature is limited by the Constitution to Monday next, and the condition of the public business imperatively requiring every moment of time to intervene between this and the time fixed for the close of the session, to be diligently devoted to the dispatch of that business, therefore

Resolved, that this House will sit on Sunday the 9th inst., for the regular discharge of its legislative duties.

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Frazier offered the following order:

Ordered, that the House of Delegates will act exclusively from half past eight until half past nine, on the passage of local bills.

On motion of Mr. Merrick,

The House adjourned until to-night at 8 o'clock.
