

18. Thomas Lawrence, Jr of Annapolis (Prot., son of the above), com. by the crown, 20 Sept. 1698; sworn 18 March 1698/9 (AM, XXV, 10, 58); died of fever, 15 April 1701.

19. Col. William Bladen of Annapolis (Prot., wife Cath.), com. by Gov. Bladiston, 16 April and sworn 20 April 1701 (Prov. Ct. Rec., 1. TL #2, f. 341; Prov. Ct. Judgements, 1. WF #3, f. 617); superseded by Lawrence.

20. Sir Thomas Lawrence, Bart, com. by the crown, 11 July and sworn 19 Nov. 1701 (AM, XXV, 107, 118); returned to England in Jan. 1705/6, leaving Col. Philemon Lloyd II his deputy; died at Chelsea in April, 1714.

21. Thomas Beake of London (Prot.), com. by Queen Anne prior to 20 June 1714 (Prov. Ct. Rec., 1. TP #4, f. 354). In return for a promise of the Secretary's office for life he solicited and obtained restoration of the government of Maryland to the Lords Baltimore.

22. Thomas Beake and his brother-in-law *Charles Lowe of Denby, Derbyshire (Prot., His Lordship's second cousin) com. jointly by Charles, Lord Baltimore, and Francis, Lord Guilford, 30 May 1715 (Ibid., f. 354). Lowe died in office shortly before 3 April 1729 (AM, XXV, 608).

23. Thomas Beake and *Hon. Cecilius Calvert of London (Prot. convert, mother Cath. convert; His Lordship's brother) com. jointly 30 Jan. 1729/30 (Prov. Ct. Rec. 1. PL #6, f. 377). Beake probably died in or before February, 1732/3.