

1. Col. William Whittington of Somerset County (Prot.), appointed by act of October, 1694, chapt. 19 (AM, XXXVIII, 11). Dr. John Brookes of Dorchester County had been proposed by the Lower House, 30 May 1692, but he had died in March, 1692/3 before any appointment was made.

2. Maj. Thomas Smithson of Talbot County (Prot.), appointed by resolution of the Lower House, 17 Oct. 1695 (AM, XIX, 234); died in office about March, 1713/4.

3. Robert Ungle of Talbot County (Prot.), proposed by Lower House and approved by Lt. Governor and Upper House 3 July 1714 (AM, XXIX, 386); died in office in 1727.

4. Col. James Hollyday of Queen Anne's County (Prot.), proposed by Lower House and approved by Lt. Governor and Upper House, 28 Oct. 1727 (AM, XXXVI, 43); died in office, 8 Oct. 1747.

5. Col. Edward Lloyd of Wye House, Talbot County (Prot., stepson of James Hollyday), appointed by Lt. Gov. Ogle to succeed Hollyday about October, 1747 (AM, XLVI, 96). The Lower House in June, 1748 protested without effect this alleged invasion of their rights. Resigned in 1766.

6. John Leeds of Talbot County (Prot.), com. by Lt. Gov. Sharpe, 29 Sept. 1766 (Commission Book No. 82, f. 180); resigned when appointed Naval Officer of Pocomoke, 14 Oct. 1766.

7. Bedingfield Hands of Kent County (Prot.), com. by Lt. Gov. Sharpe, 14 Oct. 1766 (Ibid., f. 182); died in office in September, 1769.