

2. James Cullen of St. Mary's City (----), succeeded Llewelin in June, 1683 (Warrants, 1. WC #4, f. 356); probably served until 18 April 1689 when the Land Office was closed. The Convention of September, 1689 entrusted the land records to John Llewelin. On 14 Oct. 1692 the Governor and Council ordered Llewelin to deliver them to Secretary Lawrence (AM, VIII, 387).

3. *Charles Carroll of Anne Arundel County (Cath.), was probably appointed by his father-in-law, Col. Henry Darnall I, when the Land Office was reopened, 23 May 1694 (AM, XXV, 130, 131; Prov. Ct. Rec., 1. TP #4, f. 519); on Darnall's death, 17 June 1711, the office was again closed; Carroll then succeeded to Darnall's offices, as Agent and Receiver and Keeper of His Lordship's Great Seal.

4. John Manley of ---- County (----), probably appointed by Carroll when he reopened the office, 2 March 1712/3; was still in office, 16 April 1716 (Ibid. 1. TP #4, f. 382).

5. Edward Griffith of Annapolis (Prot.), com. by Deputy Secretary Lloyd, in his newly assumed capacity as Judge of the Land Office, 13 June 1717 (Warrants, 1. BB, f. 49); resigned in 1723, about a year before his death.

6. John Lawson of Annapolis (Prot.), com. by Judge Lloyd, 26 July 1723 (Ibid., 1. CC, f. 107). Resigned in 1733; died in 1739.

7. Griffith Beddoe of Annapolis (Prot.), com. by Edmund Jenings, 23 Aug. 1733 (Ibid., 1. EE, f. 319). Resigned in 1740/1; died in 1742.