

8. *Capt. Richard Smith, Jr. of Calvert County (Prot., wives prob. Cath.), com. by Baltimore prior to 14 Oct. 1693 when Gov. Copley refused to recognize his authority (AM, XX, 34); remained in office until 7 Dec. 1697 when the appointment of Hill limited his jurisdiction to the Eastern Shore.

b. Surveyor General of the Western Shore.

1. *Clement Hill, Jr. of Prince George's County (Cath., son-in-law of Agent Henry Darnall), com. 7 Dec. 1697 (Warrants, 1. A, f. 206); apparently his commission became void with the death of Agent Darnall, 17 June 1711. He died 23 June 1743.

2. *Charles Carroll of Anne Arundel County (Cath.; son-in-law of Agent Darnall and brother-in-law of Hill); as Agent and Receiver General he began acting as Surveyor General for Both Shores prior to 12 Sept. 1712 (Prov. Ct. Rec., 1. TP #4, f. 519).

3. *Walter Pye of Charles County (Cath.), appointed shortly before 20 July 1716 when Lt. Gov. Hart refused to recognize his commission because of his religion (AM, XXX, 388).

4. Lt. Gov. John Hart (Prot.), com. by Baltimore and Guilford as Surveyor General for Both Shores, 11 Oct. 1716, took office 11 Jan. 1716/7 (AM, XXV, 344, 346).

5. Thomas Bordley of Annapolis (Prot.), com. by Hart as Surveyor General for the Western Shore, 20 May and sworn 8 July 1717 (Warrants, 1. BB, f. 49); resigned after his appointments as Commissary General and Attorney General.