

14. George Lee of Charles County (Prot., mother Prot. convert), appointed by Baltimore, to Sharpe's no small annoyance, shortly before 16 Aug.; entered office 26 Nov. 1768 (AM, XIV, 524, 554, 557). He owed his appointment to the circumstance that he had been a factor of John Morton Jordan's, and Jordan (or perhaps Jordan's wife) had acquired Lord Baltimore's confidence. When Jordan died, Lee was displaced.

15. *Lt. Gov. Robert Eden (Prot.), arrived 5 June 1769 and assumed the Surveyorship late in 1771 (Patent Record, 1. B.C. and CS #47, f. 33) displacing Lee whom he made Sheriff of Charles County.

16. Robert Smith of Annapolis (Prot.), com. by Lt. Gov. Eden, then about to leave the province, 28 May 1774 (Commission Book No. 33, f. 3); in Nov. 1776 his office was abolished.

c. Surveyor General of the Eastern Shore.

1. *Capt. Richard Smith, Jr. of Calvert County (Prot., wife prob. Cath.), formerly Surveyor General of Both Shores; his authority was limited to the Eastern by the appointment of Clement Hill, Jr. on the Western Shore, 7 Dec. 1697 (Warrants, 1. A, f. 206). Succeeded by Heath in 1698; died in 1714.

2. James Heath of Anne Arundel County (Cath.), com. 23 Aug. 1698 (Ibid., 1. A, f. 169). Resigned in 1701 after becoming a Copartner in Farming the Quit-Rents. He died in Jan. 1731/2.

3. *Edward Dimes of Charles County (Cath., son-in-law of Agent Henry
