

Section 4.07. Lieutenant Governor as Acting Governor.

The lieutenant governor shall serve as acting governor when notified in writing by the governor that the governor will be temporarily unable to perform the duties of his office. The lieutenant governor also shall serve as acting governor when the governor is disabled but is unable to communicate to the lieutenant governor the fact of his inability to perform the duties of his office. In either event the lieutenant governor shall serve as acting governor until notified in writing by the governor that he is able to resume the duties of his office or until the office becomes vacant.

Section 4.08. Vacancy by Reason of Disability.

The General Assembly, by the affirmative vote of three-fifths of all its members in joint session, may adopt a resolution declaring that the governor or lieutenant governor is unable by reason of physical or mental disability to perform the duties of his office. The resolution, if adopted, shall be delivered to the Court of Appeals, which then shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether that officer is unable by reason of the disability to perform the duties of his office. If the Court of Appeals determines that such officer is unable to discharge the duties of his office by reason of a disability, the office shall be vacant. If the General Assembly and the Court of Appeals, acting in the same manner as described above, determine that the governor-elect or lieutenant governor-elect is unable by reason of physical or mental disability to perform the duties of the office to which he has been elected, he shall be disqualified to assume office.

Section 4.09. Succession to Offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

When a vacancy occurs in the office of governor, the lieutenant governor shall succeed to that office for the remainder of the term. When a vacancy occurs in the office of lieutenant governor, the governor shall nominate a person who shall succeed to that office upon confirmation by the affirmative vote of a majority of all members of the General Assembly in joint session. If vacancies in the offices of governor and lieutenant governor exist at the same time during the first year of their term, the offices shall be filled for the remainder of the term at the next general election and the president of Sec. 6. In case of the death, resignation, removal from the State, or other disqualification of the Governor, the General Assembly, if in session with a quorum present, or if not, at its next session with a quorum present, shall elect some other qualified person to be Governor for the residue of the term for which the said Governor had been elected.

Sec. 7. In case of any vacancy in the office of Governor, and until the General Assembly meets in session with a quorum present and elects a Governor as provided for in Section 6, the President of the Senate, at the time such vacancy occurred, shall discharge the duties of said office; and in
