

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF MARYLAND

PROPOSED CONSTITUTION OF 1968

sent of the Senate, he shall appoint a person to the office. If the appointment is made within the first sixty days of a regular session of the General Assembly, the governor shall submit to the Senate the nomination of the appointee, or the nomination of another person in his place. If the appointment is made at any other time, the governor shall submit the nomination to the Senate at the beginning of the next regular session of the General Assembly. Such an appointee shall remain in office until the end of the next regular session of the General Assembly, or until the expiration of the term of the office to which he was appointed, or until his nomination is rejected by the Senate, whichever shall occur first. No person after being rejected by the Senate shall again be appointed to or nominated for the same office at the same session, unless at the request of the Senate, or be appointed to the same office during the adjournment of the General Assembly.

Section 4.33. Information from Administrative Officers.

The governor at any time may require information, in writing or otherwise, from any officer of any department, office, agency, or instrumentality in the executive branch.

office, whose commission shall continue in force until the end of the next session of the Legislature, or until some other person is appointed to the same office, whichever shall first occur; and the nomination of the person thus appointed, during the recess, or, of some other person in his place, shall be made to the Senate on the first day of the next regular meeting of the Senate.

Sec. 12. No person, after being rejected by the Senate, shall be again nominated for the same office at the same session, unless at the request of the Senate; or, be appointed to the same office during the recess of the Legislature.

Sec. 14. If a vacancy shall occur, during the session of the Senate, in any office which the Governor and Senate have the power to fill, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate before its final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy, unless such vacancy occurs within ten days before said final adjournment.

Sec. 18. It shall be the duty of the Governor, semi-annually (and oftener, if he deem it expedient) to examine under oath the Treasurer and Comptroller of the State on all matters pertaining to their respective offices; and inspect and review their Bank and other Account Books.

Art. III, sec. 52. (11) The Governor for the purpose of making up his Budget shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to require from the proper State officials, including herein all executive departments, all executive and administrative offices, bureaus, boards, commissions and agencies, expending or supervising the expenditure of, and all institutions applying for State moneys and appropriations, such itemized estimates and other information, in such form and at such times as he shall direct. The estimates for the Legislative Department, certified by the presiding officer of each House, of the Judiciary, as provided by Law, certified by the Comptroller, and for the public schools, as provided by law, shall be transmitted to the Governor, in such form and at such times as he shall direct, and shall be included in the Budget without revision.

(12) The Governor may provide for public hearings on all estimates and may require the attendance at such hearings of repre-
