

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF MARYLAND

CONSTITUTION OF 1867

consideration thereof, is due from the United States.

Art. 25. That excessive bail ought not to be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishment inflicted, by the Courts of Law.

Art. 26. That all warrants, without oath or affirmation, to search suspected places, or to seize any person or property, are grievous and oppressive; and all general warrants to search suspected places, or to apprehend suspected persons, without naming or describing the place, or the person in special, are illegal, and ought not to be granted.

Art. 27. That no conviction shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate.

Art. 28. That a well regulated Militia is the proper and natural defence of a free Government.

Art. 29. That standing Armies are dangerous to liberty, and ought not to be raised, or kept up, without the consent of the Legislature.

Art. 30. That in all cases, and at all times, the military ought to be under strict subordination to, and control of, the civil power.

Art. 31. That no soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, except in the manner prescribed by Law.

Art. 32. That no person except regular soldiers, marines, and mariners in the service of this State, or militia, when in actual service, ought, in any case, to be subject to, or punishable by Martial Law.

Art. 33. That the independency and uprightness of Judges are essential to the impartial administration of Justice, and a great security to the rights and liberties of the People: Wherefore, the Judges shall not be removed, except in the manner, and for the causes provided in this Constitution. No Judge shall hold any other office,

PROPOSED CONSTITUTION OF 1968

See Section 1.11, Unusual Punishments, p. 4.

Section 1.05. Searches and Seizures.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches, seizures, interceptions of their communications, or other invasions of their privacy, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized, or the communications sought to be intercepted.

See Section 1.11, Unusual Punishments, p. 4.

Section 9.05. Militia.

The General Assembly may provide by law for a militia. The governor shall be its commander in chief and shall appoint its officers. The governor may order the militia into active service to repel invasions, to suppress insurrections, to enforce the execution of the laws, and to provide assistance when great destruction of life or property may be threatened or may have occurred. The military authority of the State shall be and remain subject to civil control in the person of the governor at all times. Only a member of the militia may be subject to a military trial and then only for offenses committed while in actual service.

Section 5.25. Restriction of Non-Judicial Activities.

No judge shall practice law, or seek public elective office other than the judicial office he then holds, or contribute to or hold office in a political party or political organization, or participate in a partisan political campaign, or serve as officer, director, or employee of
