So the House refused to adjourn.

On motion of Mr. Alexander.

The House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Harrington in the Chair.

After some time spent in Committee of the whole;

The Speaker resumed the chair, and

Mr. Harrington, chairman of the committee of the whole, reported favorably the Preamble and Resolutions offered by Mr. Grieves, and unfavorably upon the Substitute offered by Mr. Mackubin, and asked to be discharged from their further consideration.

Mr. Belt offered the following order:

Ordered, That whereas, at a sitting of the committee of the Whole House, this evening, the chairman thereof did leave the chair, as is alleged; and whereas, the Speaker of this House did immediately take the chair, declare the committee dissolved and the House to be in session, although the said committee had not entertained any motion to rise; and whereas, the said committee at that time had under consideration the preamble and resolutions offered by the gentleman from Dorchester, and the substitute thereto offered by the gentleman from Anne Arundel; and whereas, these resolutions and the substitute are now said to have been reported to this House from said committee with certain recommendations. Mr. Belt objects, as a question of order, that the action of the Speaker in
