

RECEIPTS—(Continued.)

|                                                                                           | Dolls.    | Cts. |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|------|
| Bank Stock, for Dividends,                                                                | $17,821  | 23   |
| Direct Taxes,                                                                             | 75,997    | 35   |
| The State Tobacco Inspection in Baltimore,                                                | 3,616     | 32   |
| Licenses to Agents of Foreign Corporations,                                               | 600       | 00   |
| Auctioneers' Licenses,                                                                    | 1,700     | 00   |
| The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Co., for dividend on State Bonds, converted, (a re-payment,) | 9,952     | 25   |
| The same, on Dividend Bonds,                                                              | 150       | 00   |
| Interest on Personal Accounts,                                                            | 2,697     | 66   |
| Clerks of the Courts,                                                                     | 212,696   | 34   |
| Registers of Wills,                                                                       | 38,159    | 51   |
| Interest on the Public Debt, (a re-payment,)                                              | 1,434     | 31   |
| The Legislature, (a re-payment,)                                                          | 21        | 00   |
|                                                                                           | $901,343 | 65   |
| By balance in Treasury proper 1st July, 1856,                                             | $517,438 | 61   |

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Comptroller's Office,
Annapolis, June 30th, 1856,

Examined and found correct.

W. H. PURNELL, Comptroller.