

Any business shall be made known or published by the Secretary, without the special direction of the Senate.

XXXVIII.

Whenever it shall be determined by the Joint Resolution of the two Branches of the General Assembly, or otherwise, that the Financial Assembly will finally express on a particular subject the Senate shall, at least twenty-four hours before such determination, transmit to the Governor, and request to be informed whether he has any further nominations to make.

A LIST OF THE TITLES

The following list shall be construed to apply to all proceedings in Executive Session, except the names of committees, and the confirmation or rejection thereof, without the privilege of assigning reasons pending the legislation, and the vote or opinion of any Senator.

OF THE

LAWS AND RESOLUTIONS,

MADE AND PASSED

JANUARY SESSION, 1858.

It shall not be competent for any member of either House, or any Officer, Resolution, or otherwise, to place upon the Journals any observation made by himself or another, touching the character or fitness for office of any individual.
