

remonstrating against any change in the inspection laws, relating to salted and foreign fish, already inspected;

Which was referred to the committee on Inspections.

Mr. Lynch, of Baltimore city, presented a petition of the Monumental Association of the Locomotive Engineers of Baltimore, the President and Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, and two hundred citizens of Baltimore, praying the passage of an act to secure the greater safety of persons traveling on railroads in this State;

Which was referred to the committee on Internal Improvements.

Mr. Alexander presented a petition of Thomas J. Fort and fifty-four other citizens of Maryland, paying taxes to Virginia, praying a speedy settlement of the dividing line between the two States:

Which was referred to the special committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Hobbs presented a petition of James H. Maynard and nineteen other citizens of Frederick county, praying the passage of an act making it obligatory on county and district officers to suppress all negro night meetings, whether religious or otherwise;

Which was referred to the committee on Colored Population.

Mr. Ford, of Cecil county, presented a petition of Thomas Miller and thirty-four other citizens of Cecil county, against the passage of any school bill for said county;

Which was referred to the committee on Education.

Mr. Goldsborough presented a petition of sundry citizens of Caroline county, in reference to the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Greensborough in Caroline county;

Which was referred to the committee on Corporations.

Mr. McGonigal presented a petition from forty-four citizens of Caroline county, praying that a law may be passed confining the duties of constables and town bailiffs to their respective districts and villages, where they are elected;

Which was referred to the Caroline county delegation.

Mr. Bacon presented a petition of thirty-two citizens of Havre de Grace in Harford county, praying the enactment of a law, making Canal Boats liable for debts contracted for their use;

Which was referred to the committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Thruston presented a petition from one hundred and