

Which was referred to the committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Alexander presented a memorial from David Ball and twenty-nine other citizens of Baltimore, praying for a prohibitory liquor law;

Which was referred to the committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Mountz presented a memorial from George W. Kildow and other citizens of Allegany county, remonstrating against any change in the law allowing debtors to be sued before a justice of the peace out of his district;

Which was referred to the committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Mackubin presented a memorial from sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, praying the passage of a law in relation to manures sold by the cart load;

Which was referred to the committee on Inspections.

Mr. McPherson offered the following order:

Ordered, That his Excellency the Executive of this State, be requested to obtain from the proper authorities of the State of Maine, such statistical information, relative to the practical working of the Prohibitory Liquor Law, during the period of its enforcement in that State, in the diminution of costs for prosecuting criminals, maintaining convicts and paupers, &c.; as will enable the committee on Ways and Means, and this House, more clearly to understand and determine: Whether the prohibition of the manufacture and sale of ardent spirits and intoxicating liquors, would not better promote the pecuniary interests of this State, by the reduction of her expenses, than all the revenue now derived from existing license laws, or that is likely to be received from new enactments on this subject? And transmit the same to this House at the earliest practicable period:

Which was adopted.

Mr. Alexander offered the following order:

Ordered, That preparatory to night sessions, the Librarian be and he is hereby directed, to have all the lamps in this hall re-fitted immediately;

Which was adopted.

Mr. Alexander offered the following order:

Ordered, That bill No. 90, being an act entitled, an act to simplify and regulate Pleadings and Practice in Equity, be and the same is hereby made the special order for Thursday, 11th instant;

Which was adopted.

Mr. Barnard offered the following order: