

Which was referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Crowley presented a petition from twenty-four Constables of Baltimore city, asking for increase of fees ;

Which was referred to the committee on Ways and Means.
Mr. Mackubin presented a memorial from sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, protesting against the repeal of the law prohibiting the use of sink boats ;

Which was referred to the special committee already appointed.

Mr. Belt presented a petition from sundry citizens of Bladensburg, Prince George's county, praying an act amending the charter of the Bladensburg Academy ;

Which was referred to the Prince George's county delegation.

Mr. Belt presented a petition from the heirs and legal representatives of Lilburn Williams, an officer in the war of the Revolution, praying for remuneration therein mentioned ;

Which was referred to the committee on Pensions.

Mr. Smith, of Baltimore city, presented a memorial from fifty-three citizens of Baltimore, asking a prohibitory liquor aw in this State ;

Which was referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Gray presented a petition from one hundred citizens of Washington county, opposed to the repeal of the exemption law ;

Which was referred to the committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Kidd presented a petition from John W. Holt and twenty other citizens of Cecil county, against the passage of an act to establish a system of Common Schools for said county ;

Which was referred to the committee on Education.

Mr. Kidd presented a petition from Lawrence Sentman, George A. Garrett, and fifty-eight other citizens of Cecil county, against the passage of an act to establish Common Schools in said county ;

Which was referred to the committee on Education ;

Mr. Kilgour offered the following order :

Ordered, That the committee on Ways and Means, be instructed to enquire into the expediency of establishing a State Bank, to be located at Annapolis, with her branches, one on the Eastern and one on the Western Shore ;

Mr. Stirling moved to lay said order on the table ;

Which was determined in the affirmative.