

Leave was granted to Mr. Harrington, to introduce a bill to punish intoxication and drunkenness, in the city of Baltimore.

Referred to the committee on Judiciary, hereafter to be appointed.

Mr. Grieves, offered the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, His Excellency the Governor of the State of Maryland has transmitted to the Senate and House of Delegates, his annual message and documents therewith, in which he has given an account of his proceedings relative to calling forth the military in the city of Baltimore, on the day of the last election in that city;

And Whereas, It appears by his statement that he visited said city on the 28th day of October last, and immediately addressed a communication to the Mayor, stating "that representations from a large number of most respectable citizens, of the condition of things in that city, added to his own conviction of his constitutional duty, imposed upon him the obligations respectfully to consult the Mayor of the city, as to what provision should be made by him, (the Mayor,) to guarantee personal security and the free exercise of suffrage by the legal voters at the approaching election;"

And Whereas, It appearing by said correspondence that the Mayor, in reply, invited His Excellency "to furnish him with any reliable evidence, upon which he could legally act, of a combination on the part of any of the citizens of said city, to obstruct the laws at the approaching election, and also informed His Excellency, that he deemed his powers to preserve the peace to be ample, and that in view of the emergency, he had "in addition to the usual complement of officers, assigned to the stations, and various election precincts acting immediately in concert with the judges, together with the details by which they were to be regulated there would be what he deemed in his judgment a force competent to insure to those who might be entitled to vote, the free and untrammelled exercise of their right of suffrage, and that it was his belief that unless some unforeseen occurrence, should take place or an ungovernable feeling should be excited by those who were then engaged in the effort to break down the city government, that the election would proceed quietly and without interruption;

And Whereas, His Excellency declined or failed to furnish to the Mayor any evidence, (if any he had,) of a combination on the part of any citizens, to obstruct or violate the laws, but forthwith, without further consultation or correspondence, issued his orders to the military officers, to enroll, equip and hold a command of not less than six regiments, ready for immediate service, and thereupon, made his proclamation to the citizens of Baltimore an-
