NEGATIVE.—None.

Mr. Grievess, from the select committee, appointed to wait on the Governor elect, reported that the committee had performed their duty, and that a message from the Senate would announce to the house the time when the ceremony of inauguration would take place.

Mr. Grievess, offered the following order:

Ordered, That the Adjutant General be requested to direct the national flag to be raised on the steeple of the State House, and the usual salute fired at the hour of Inaugurating the Honorable Thomas Holliday Hicks, as Governor of the State;

Which was adopted.

Mr. Schnebly, reported a bill entitled, "an act," relating to the banks of this State;

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on currency.

Mr. Kimmel, on the part of the Honorable Senate, appeared in the House, and announced that the oaths of office were about to be administered to the Governor elect, and invited the attendance of the House of Delegates.

The members proceeded in a body to the Senate chamber, and after the ceremonies of inauguration had been concluded, returned to their Hall.

On motion of Mr. Harrington,

The House adjourned till to-morrow at eleven o'clock.
