

Cathers and others praying for the passage of a law to authorise him to practice his peculiar remedy and treatment of the disease commonly called cancer, beg leave to report.

That they have had said petition and the subject connected therewith under consideration, and are of the opinion, that the remedy of Mr. Catthers has considerable claims to originality and plausibility, and is sustained by the testimony of many persons whose intelligence and veracity are entitled to the highest respect, but we think that he is already sufficiently authorised to practice his remedy by the law passed at December session 1838, chapter 281, and therefore believe that no additional Legislation is necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN S. LYNCH, Chairman.
