So the House refused to suspend the rules.

The following message was received from the Executive at the hands of his Private Secretary, Richard D. Sellman, Esq :

[See Document Q.]

Which was read and the accompanying report referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

The Speaker laid before the House the following report:

[See Document R.]

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

On motion of Mr. Thruston,

The House resolved itself into a committee of the Whole on the resolutions offered by Mr. Contee on February 15, relative to public affairs in Kansas.

Mr. Stirling of Baltimore city in the chair.

After sometime spent in committee of the Whole, the Speaker resumed the chair, and Mr. Stirling, chairman of the committee of the Whole, made the following report:

The committee of the Whole House beg leave to report that they have had under consideration the preamble and resolutions introduced by the gentleman from Prince George's county, on the 15th instant, and report the same with the following amendments, and ask to be discharged from the consideration of the subject.

At the end of fourth resolution add the following:
