

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Waller,	Bowlus,	McPherson,
Dail,	Root,	Summers,
Thomas,	Koons,	Gray,
Harding,	Hanway,	McKinstry,—12.

The said bill was then returned to the Senate.

Mr. Thruston offered the following order :

Ordered, That it be entered on the Journal that if Mr. Belt and Mr. Spence had been in their seats yesterday when the bill authorising the call of a Convention to reform the Constitution was on its passage they would have voted in the negative;

Which was adopted.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day:

The House took up for consideration, the bill entitled, an act to establish a uniform system of public education in the State of Maryland;

On motion of Mr. Stirling,

The consideration of said bill was indefinitely postponed.

The House then took up for consideration, the bill entitled, an act to establish a Normal or Training school for teachers, at St. John's College, in the city of Annapolis;

Said bill being upon its second reading,

Mr. Thruston proposed the following amendment.

"Strike out the enacting clause of the bill;"

Mr. Koons, called the previous question on the amendment,

Which was sustained.

The question then being "shall the main question be now put;"

It was determined in the affirmative.

The question then recurring on the amendment,

It was not assented to by yeas and nays as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.
