The said resolutions were then sent to the Senate.

Mr. Magruder, from the committee on Judiciary, reported favorably on a bill entitled an act to release Wm. Price, Thomas McKaig, George W. Brown and George A. Pearre, and also to release the Cumberland Coal and Iron Company from the claim for taxes preferred, in their State's bill in equity, filed in the Circuit Court for Allegany county, as a Court of Equity, on the 2nd day of December, in the year 1854, and requiring said bill to be dismissed :

Which was read the first time.

On motion of Mr. Thruston,

The rules were suspended, and

Said bill read a second and third times, and passed by yeas and nays, as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.
