

The bill entitled, an act for the establishment of a Normal Training school for teachers, and an office in connection therewith, for the collection and dissemination of information on the subject of education, at St. John's College, in the city of Annapolis;

The question being on the following substitute for said bill:

Whereas, by act of Assembly of 1784, chapter 37, it is declared, that a college or seminary of learning, by the name of St. John's College, should be founded and maintained forever, upon the most liberal plan for the benefit of youth of every religious denomination, "and for the further establishment and encouragement of said College, it was enacted; that the sum of \$4,666.66 $\frac{2}{3}$ , be annually and forever thereafter given and granted, to be applied by the visitors and governors of said College, to the payment of salaries to the Principal, Professors and Teachers of said College; and whereas, by the act of Assembly of 1805, chapter 85, said annuity was withdrawn and the sum of \$1,666.66 $\frac{2}{3}$ , of said annuity is still withheld; Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that the additional sum of \$1,666.66 $\frac{2}{3}$ , be and the same is hereby appropriated, to be paid annually out of the Treasury, to the visitors and governors of St. John's College, for use of said College.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

The House considered the following amendment to said substitute:

"Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this appropriation is made on the condition that the Governor of this State shall be authorised to appoint six visitors on the part of the State in the Board of Visitors of St. John's College, in addition to the officers of the State, who are now ex-officio members of the Board; and in case of the acceptance of this act by the Board of Visitors of St. John's College, the Governor is hereby authorised and required to appoint, annually, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, six visitors on the part of the State, in St. John's College;"

Which was assented to.

Also, considered the following amendment:

"And that the sum of one thousand dollars is hereby appropriated to be paid annually by the Treasurer upon the warrant of the Comptroller, for the use of the Allegany county Academy;"

Which was not assented to.
