

The bill entitled, an act to regulate the issuing of licenses to ordinary keepers and traders;

Being upon its second reading,

Mr. Hanway proposed the following amendment:

At the end of the 2d section, add, "Provided, if said applicant lives out of the county or State, his agent may apply for license as provided by this section;"

Which was assented to.

Mr. Ford, of Baltimore county, proposed the following amendment:

Add at the end of the 6th section the following: "provided, that nothing contained in this act shall be so construed as to allow peddlers to traffic or trade in spirituous liquors in any manner whatever;"

Which was assented to.

Mr. Thruston proposed the following amendment:

Add at the end of the 6th section, "and provided further, that the oath or affirmation required by the 5th and 6th sections of this act may, in the several counties of this State, be made before a Justice of the Peace, and a copy of such oath or affirmation shall be filed with the clerk of the county to whom application is made;"

Which was assented to.

Mr. Belt proposed the following amendment:

"Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That any person who may take out a license, under the provisions of this act, as an ordinary keeper, or retailer of goods, or storekeeper, shall be able and entitled to sell and dispose of any spirituous or malt liquors without taking out any additional license, or paying any sum in addition to that paid for his license as a retailer;"

Which was not assented to.

Was then read the second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Said bill was then read the third time, by special order, three-fourths of all the members concurring, and passed by yeas and nays, as follow:
