

NEGATIVE.

Messrs Sudler, of Som. Dail, Baker,
Tilghman, Bowlus, Dorsey—6.

The said bill was then sent to the Senate.

The bill entitled, an act supplementary to an act respecting notaries public in this State, passed December session, 1801,

Being on its second reading,

Mr. Kennard proposed the following amendment as an additional section:

“Section 2. And be it enacted, That the four notaries public by this act created, together with those notaries public in and for said city of Baltimore heretofore created by the act to which this act is a supplement, be and they are hereby required under the penalty of a fine of fifty dollars, to be paid to the public school fund of Baltimore city, to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are now recovered, and under the further penalty of forfeiture of office, to form themselves into an association, to be governed by such by-laws as they may deem expedient, and to divide each week and share alike to each member thereof the whole of the net weekly receipts of the notaries aforesaid, which for that purpose shall be paid in each week as a common fund to such officer of said association as may be by them selected.”

Which was assented to.

Mr. Crowley moved to strike out the enacting clause;

The yeas and nays were demanded, and appeared as follow:
