NEGATIVE—None.

The said bill was then sent to the Senate.

The Senate bill entitled, an act for the protection of certain game in the several counties therein mentioned;

Being on its second reading,

Mr. McKinstry proposed the following amendment:

“Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That if any tavern or restaurant keeper, market man or any other person in this State, shall expose for sale or have in his possession any partridge, quail, woodcock or pheasant, at any time between the times in which the killing of such birds is declared unlawful by this act, he, she or they shall be considered equally as guilty as if he, she or they had killed or trapped the same, and shall be liable to all the penalties incurred by a violation of the provisions of this act, and the having in possession any such bird or birds shall be prima facie evidence of their having been killed in Maryland contrary to the provisions of this act.

Which was assented to.

Mr. Morgan proposed the following amendment:

“That St. Mary’s, Somerset, Cecil, Queen Anne’s and Dorchester counties be included in the provisions of this bill;”

Which was assented to.

The bill as amended, was then read the second and third times, by special order, and passed by yeas and nays, as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.
