

ments showing the amount of the capital stock, amount of the loans and discounts, specie in the banks, amount due to, and due from other banks, amount of deposits, and amounts of circulation of said corporations, respectively; and that all the banks in this State without the limits of the city of Baltimore, shall, on the first Wednesday of July next, and annually thereafter, on the first Wednesday of July, publish in one of the newspapers published in the county in which the corporation may be located, statements embracing the above items, showing their condition.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the discounting of drafts, or of promissory notes, or of other negotiable paper, in any other notes than the issues of the banks of Maryland, at par value thereof, by any of the banks of this State, is hereby prohibited; and be it further enacted, that any such draft or promissory note, or other negotiable paper, that may be discounted with any issues, other than the issues of the banks of Maryland, at par value thereof, shall not be recoverable in any court of law in this State.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That any bank failing to comply with the provisions and requirements of this act, shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars for each and every failure to comply, to be recovered in the name and for the use of the State of Maryland, as other fines and forfeitures may be recovered."

Mr. Stirling called for the previous question,

Which was sustained.

The question then being shall the main question be now put,
