NEGATIVE—None.

The said resolutions were then returned to the Senate.

The bill entitled, an act making appropriatino for the support of the General Government for the year ending January 1st, 1860,

Being on its second reading,

Mr. Stirling, chairman of the committee on Ways and Means, proposed the following amendment:

Sec. 1, add "For the payment of the per diem of the members of the Convention to form a new Constitution and form of Government of this State, if such Convention shall assemble under the act passed at the present session, and for the contingent expenses of the same, one hundred thousand dollars;"

Which was assented to.
