The following is a list of names and titles, enclosed in large curly braces on both sides. The text is very faint and difficult to decipher, but appears to be a list of individuals, possibly a council or a list of officials.

The lower portion of the page contains several paragraphs of text, continuing the historical or administrative record. The handwriting is consistent with the upper portion, though the ink is lighter and the lines are more blurred. The text seems to describe events, decisions, or appointments related to the county's affairs.
