

Juris Court 1759

168 on the third Tuesday of June being the nineteenth day of said month in the year of Our Lord seven hundred thirty nine with the ap Lord propy by his Attorney ap and prayeth that the ap Mary be the Judge ap may say or — And the ap Mary in her proper flow comes defende the said Injury when & And saith that she is in no sort guilty of the promise at above upon her Injoud av by the Jud. ap it is alledge and thereof she putteth herself upon the Country — And he who followeth for the said propy in like manner saith she is guilty to — Thereupon Command was given to the Just of that County that he immediately cause to come here to be looked to by whom the who neither do so recognize to be answerable to the Justice nor except the said Just to wit James Wilmer Gent now here at this day to wit the nineteenth day of June in the year of Our Lord seven hundred thirty nine makes return that he hath had ready looked to as by his precept he was commanded And now here afterwards to wit the day & year last mentioned come again the ap Lord propy by his Attorney ap and the ap Mary in her proper person and the Jurors of that Jury being Injuried called who were come to wit James Riggold, Nathl. Nicholls, Henry Trulock, Francis Barney, Bullen, Masford, Sainsell Mansford, Michael Hackett, Rute Noarock, James Wright, Robert Mansford, James Thomas Charter Smith who being duly Sworn by & sworn to say the truth in the promise the ap Mary the previous appearing to the Verdict of the Jurors ap Upon their Call do say that the ap Mary Norris is guilty as she stands Indited & by James Riggold their foreman all so say to — Therefore it is considered by the Justices here to wit at that County Court at the Court house in the Town of Chester in said County on the third Tuesday of June being the nineteenth day of said month in the year of Our Lord seven hundred thirty nine and that the ap Mary Norris serve the term the Term of Seven Years as a punishment for the formation ap According to Act of Assembly.