

June Court 1739

On the Back of the said Judgment was Indorsed as follows

Willa Veronam. Riggold for man

And now heard to wit at Kent County Court at the Court house in the Town of Chester in said County on the third Tuesday of June being the nineteenth day of said month in the year of Our said Lord's second hundred thirty and nine cometh the said Lord Propy by Joshua George his Attorney and prayeth that the said Law be the Judgment of may answer

And the said Law in her proper Person comes and defends the force and injury which she saith that she is innocently guilty of the premises above upon her Judgment as by the Judgment of it is alleged And thereof she putteth herself upon the Country

And he who followeth for the said Propy in like manner saith she is guilty

Thereupon Command was given to the Sheriff of Kent County that he should indorsely cause to come here hooded by whom he who neither he do require to be named as well he of which said Precept the said Sheriff to wit Simon Wilton here now heard at this day to wit the nineteenth day of June in the Year of Our said second hundred thirty and nine maketh return that he hath here ready hooded by his Precept he was commanded And now here afterwards to wit the day of year last above mentioned comes again the said Lord Propy by Joshua George his Attorney and the said Law in her proper Person and the Jurors of that Jury being sworn and called likewise come to wit James

Riggold, Nathaniel Putteth, Henry Tralock, Francis Baring, William Medford, Samuel Mansfield, Michael Hatfield

Richard Pearce, James Wright, Robert Mansfield, James Thomas and Charles Smith, who being duly clothed byed swore to say the truth in the premises the said Law appearing to the Verdict of the Jurors of Upon their Oath do say that the said Law is guilty as stands Indorsed and by their foreman all so say

Therefore it is considered by the Justice here to wit at Kent County Court at the Court house in the Town of

Chester in said County on the third Tuesday of June being the nineteenth day of said month in the year of Our said Lord's second hundred thirty and nine