

449. Physical Examination, Autopsy.

There shall be a provision as follows:

“Physical Examinations and Autopsy: The insurer at its own expense shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and as often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of a claim hereunder and to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not forbidden by law.”

450. Legal Actions.

There shall be a provision as follows:

“Legal Actions: No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on this policy prior to the expiration of sixty days after written proof of loss has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of this policy. No such action shall be brought after the expiration of three (3) years after the written proof of loss is required to be furnished.”

451. Change of Beneficiary.

There shall be a provision as follows:

“Change of Beneficiary: Unless the insured makes an irrevocable designation of beneficiary, the right to change a beneficiary is reserved to the insured and the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall not be requisite to surrender or assignment of this policy or to any change of beneficiary or beneficiaries, or to any other changes in this policy.”

(The first clause of this provision, relating to the irrevocable designation of beneficiary, may be omitted at the insurer's option.)

452. Optional Policy Provisions.

Except as provided in subsection (b) of section 439 of this subtitle, no such policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this State shall contain provisions respecting the matters set forth in sections 453 to 462, inclusive, of this subtitle unless such provisions are in the words in which the same appear in the applicable section, except that the insurer may, at its option, use in lieu of any such provision a corresponding provision of different wording approved by the Commissioner which is not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary. Any such provision contained in the policy shall be preceded individually by the applicable caption or, at the option of the insurer, by such appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the Commissioner may approve.

453. Change of Occupation.

There may be a provision as follows:

“Change of Occupation: If the insured be injured or contract sickness after having changed his occupation to one classified by the insurer as more hazardous than that stated in this policy or while doing for compensation anything pertaining to an occupation so classified, the insurer will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in this policy as the premium paid would have purchased
