

Judges Acting as Boards of Registry", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

30.

(a) In addition to the days of registration in the several election precincts and districts as provided by this sub-title, the supervisors of elections of any county are hereby authorized to provide for the registration of voters and change of party affiliation and removals as provided by Sections 28 and 38 (c) of this article, at their respective offices at their respective county seats or other places, in such county on such additional days and during such hours as they shall determine, but not later than the time prescribed in Section 29 herein; however, the Supervisors of Elections of Wicomico County and Worcester County in their discretion may elect to use the periods of registration days which are provided in Section 38 (a) of this article, rather than the periods specified in Section 29. In the event the supervisors of elections of any county shall provide for such registration, the county commissioners or county council of said county shall make available sufficient funds to pay the officers of registration designated or named to make such registration and other necessary expenses. Either the said supervisors of elections shall appoint two registration officers (one from each of the two major political parties of the State) to constitute a board of registry for the purposes of this section, or one majority member and the minority member of the board of supervisors of elections may constitute the board of registry for the purposes of this section. Notice of such additional days and places of registration shall be given as hereinbefore provided in Section 12 of this article; provided, however, that when a regular schedule for such additional days and places of registration is so authorized, such notice need be given with respect to such schedule and not as to the several days and places for such additional registration.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1963.

Approved April 30, 1963.
