

lection by the orphans' court of the county, a warrant or warrants shall issue under the seal of office authorizing two persons of discretion, both of whom shall be selected by the orphans' court and neither of whom shall be related to the deceased nor interested in the administration, to appraise the goods, chattels and personal estate of the deceased known to them or to be shown by the executor, administrator or collector. The orphans' court shall appoint six appraisers, to hold office at the pleasure of court, who shall appraise the goods, chattels and personal estates of all decedents under the administration of the orphans' court. One of such persons shall be designated as chief appraiser for the court at an annual salary of six thousand dollars, and the others shall be designated as his assistants at an annual salary of three thousand six hundred dollars each and each of the six appraisers shall receive a monthly expense account of fifty dollars. Such salaries shall be in lieu of any and all other compensation for their duties as such. The register of wills of the county is hereby authorized and directed to enact a schedule of fees to be charged for the appraisal of the decedent's estates for the purpose of defraying the salaries hereinbefore established. In the event the fees derived from such schedule of fees are insufficient to pay such salaries and expense accounts, then any deficiency shall be paid from the general fees collected by the register of wills.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1963.

Approved April 30, 1963.

CHAPTER 698

(House Bill 125)

AN ACT to authorize the creation of a State debt in the aggregate amount of ~~$500,000.00~~ $75,000.00 for the purpose of aiding in the construction of a men's dormitory and of an athletic center, and for the purpose of aiding in the renovation and remodeling of Iglehart Hall as a dining hall and of the Chase Stone House as a dormitory, AN ADDITION TO THE LIBRARY, on the campus of St. John's College in Annapolis, subject to the requirements that the said College, on or before January 1, 1965, shall have obtained elsewhere at least an equal and matching sum for the same purposes, or for a portion of the same purposes; PURPOSE; and providing generally for the issue and sale of certificates of indebtedness evidencing this loan.

Whereas, St. John's College, in the City of Annapolis, has an overall master plan for future development of its campus, looking toward an anticipated enrollment of 350 students and

Whereas, this master plan, when accomplished, will result in a material improvement to the present building and facilities of St. John's College and

Whereas, the State, in recent years, has assisted a number of colleges in Maryland to expand their buildings and facilities and should also help the fine program and potential development of St. John's College; now, therefore
