

directed against any party to the proceeding, pertaining to the custody and guardianship of the child, visitation privileges with the child, the furnishing of bond, remaining in the State of Maryland, reporting changes of address, or any other matter which may be for the general welfare and best interests of the child, to the same extent and as fully as if the child were a legitimate child, all in accordance with the inherent jurisdiction of courts of equity over minors and the jurisdiction and power conferred by Section 66 of this Article and any provision of this subtitle.

(c) The Court may also provide in the order the amount or extent to which the mother of said child shall contribute to the support and maintenance of the child, the expense of confinement and recovery, funeral expenses and other expenses in connection with her pregnancy, as well as the costs of the proceedings.

(d) If the finding of the Court or jury, as the case may be, is in favor of the defendant alleged to be the putative father, the Court nevertheless may retain jurisdiction in the premises and take such other and further proceedings on its own motion or otherwise, as the Court may deem just and proper and in the best interests of the child, including the entry of an appropriate order against the mother of the child for the support and maintenance of the child, allowing the impleading or joinder in the proceedings of any other person who may be alleged to be father of said child, and any other matter which may be in the best interest of said child.

(e) No order shall be entered against any person under this subtitle unless the person is or shall have been made a party to the proceedings and after reasonable notice to such party and an opportunity to be heard.

(f) No proceedings under this subtitle shall be dismissed voluntarily without the approval of the State's Attorney of the County or city where they shall have been filed, except by an order of the Court for good cause shown.

(g) A declaration of paternity contained in any order is final and not subject to the revisory power of the Court except in the manner and to the extent that any other order or decree of a court of equity in this State may be subject to the revisory power of the Court by virtue of any statute, rule of court, or the established principals of practice and procedure in equity. All other orders or parts of orders in the proceedings are subject to the further order of the Court, and the Court, from time to time thereafter, may annual, vary or modify the orders as to the Court may seem just and proper in the light of the then existing circumstances and in the best interests of the child or children involved therein and also in accordance with the power of modification as provided in Section 66 of this Article.

(H) UPON THE COMPLETION OF PROCEEDINGS FOR THE DETERMINATION OF PATERNITY, THE COURT MAY, IN ITS DISCRETION, ORDER THE CLERK TO SEAL ALL THE PAPERS IN THE CASE AND THEY SHALL NOT THEREAFTER BE OPENED EXCEPT UPON ORDER OF THE COURT. IN ANY FURTHER PROCEEDINGS UNDER SUBSECTION (G) HEREOF RELATING TO THE CHILD'S CUSTODY OR THE SUPPORT PAYMENTS, THE PAPERS SHALL REMAIN SEALED UNLESS THE COURT SHALL OTHERWISE DIRECT.
