

The Chief or Deputy of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau in service on June 1, 1963, shall receive credit for any service as Chief or Deputy of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau prior to June 1, 1963, to the same extent as though such Chief or Deputy had service as Chief or Deputy of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau after July 1, 1954.

Where any Chief or Deputy of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau who retired shall die, the amount of the pension he was receiving at the time of his death shall be paid to his widow, and upon her death or remarriage, the pension shall be paid to any of his unmarried children under the age of nineteen as a group, each child becoming ineligible to receive any part of the pension upon reaching the age of nineteen years. If the wife has predeceased the retired Chief or Deputy of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau at the time of his death and he leaves at his death an unmarried child or children under the age of nineteen years, they shall receive the pension as stated until reaching the age of nineteen years.

The County Commissioners shall pay annually to the widow of any Chief or Deputy of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau, who is killed while in the active performance of his duties the annual salary received by him at the time of death. If the widow remarries or dies, leaving an unmarried child or children under the age of nineteen years, the annual salary shall be paid to the child or children as a group, each child becoming ineligible to receive any part of the annual salary upon reaching his or her nineteenth birthday. If the wife has predeceased the Chief or Deputy of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau at the time of his death and he leaves at his death an unmarried child or children under the age of nineteen years, they shall receive the annual salary as stated, until reaching the age of nineteen years.

The widow of any Chief or Deputy of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau who after having served his probationary period, shall die from natural causes, shall receive fifty per centum (50%) of his monthly salary at the time of his death. Upon her death or remarriage the salary shall be paid to any of his unmarried children under the age of nineteen years as a group, each child becoming ineligible to receive any part of the salary upon reaching the age of nineteen years. If the wife has predeceased the Chief or Deputy of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau at the time of his death, and he leaves at his death an unmarried child or children under the age of nineteen years, they shall receive the annual salary as stated until reaching the age of nineteen years. Notwithstanding the above provisions, if, at the death of the widow, there is any child or children of such deceased Chief or Deputy Chief of the Fire Prevention Bureau or Arson Bureau totally and permanently disabled, the salary shall be paid to such child or children for the life of the child or children.
