

Dorchester, Wicomico, Worcester, Somerset, St. Mary's, Caroline, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties and special laws enacted. This section shall not apply to Baltimore County, as to which special provision is made by the local law therefor.

10.

(a) When said list of names selected as directed in Section 9 is made and certified as therein provided for, immediately thereupon the said judges of the said respective courts, in the presence of the members of the bar, as aforesaid, and such other persons as may think proper to be present, shall cause all the names selected and placed in the list as aforesaid to be legibly written upon ballots, which shall be of equal size and of the same color and appearance, and shall be closely rolled or folded, and in each of the counties, except Frederick, Montgomery and Carroll counties, placed by the said judges with their own hands before the drawings herein provided for in a cubiform box, with a sliding top of the square of eight inches, to be procured for that purpose by the clerk of said court, under the direction of the said judges, and after so depositing said ballots, the said box shall be closed and the said judges shall then cause the clerk, or one of his deputies, whom the said judges shall designate (neither the one nor the other who may be so required to act to be present at the writing, rolling or folding and depositing said ballots into the box as herein directed) to appear before them and then and there, in the presence of the said judges and such other persons as may choose to be present after well and thoroughly shaking the said box, so that the ballots be well mixed, to draw from said box through such opening made by removing the sliding top thereof as will only conveniently admit the hand and without in any manner looking into said box one by one, forty-eight of said ballots, and the names appearing on said ballots as drawn shall be duly recorded by said judges or by clerk, in their presence and under their direction, in the order in which they shall be drawn. This section shall not apply to Dorchester, Wicomico, Somerset, Worcester, and to Charles County except to the extent provided for in subsection (f), and to Prince George's County except to the extent provided for in subsection (g).

11.

Immediately after each drawing for jurors as directed in Section 10 or 10A and for talesmen as hereinafter directed and without suffering the said ballots remaining in said box to be taken out or in any manner removed therefrom or inspected or examined, or the said box to be looked into or removed from his presence by any person whatever, the said judge of the said respective courts shall close said box and either lock or seal the same securely and keeping the key or seal thereof himself, shall deposit the said box containing the remaining ballots with the clerk of the said court to be by him safely kept free from any handling or interference by any person whatever, unless it be in the presence of the said judge and by his direction and then only in the manner herein directed; and if for the trial of any cause or causes, whether civil or criminal, in the said circuit court, a talesman or talesmen be required, the judge of the said court may order the sheriff to summon such talesman or talesmen either from a list of names that shall be drawn from the said box containing the said ballots in the mode and manner as directed by Section 10 and furnished to the said sheriff or from the community at large, as heretofore practiced.
