

peace at large hereinbefore specified, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint one justice of the peace at large for each county of the State, except Anne Arundel, Montgomery, Prince George's and Kent counties, who shall be designated "substitute trial magistrates". Such magistrate shall post the bond required of trial magistrates and shall receive a salary of $100.00 per year, except there shall be four substitute magistrates appointed for Baltimore County, each of whom shall receive $2,000.00 per year in addition to the compensation received when actually sitting as a substitute as hereinafter provided, and except the substitute magistrate appointed for Somerset County, who shall receive five hundred dollars ($500.00) per year in addition to the compensation received when actually sitting as a substitute, as hereinafter provided and except the substitute magistrate appointed for Cecil County, who shall receive $300.00 per year in addition to the compensation received when actually sitting as a substitute, as hereinafter provided. And in Wicomico County said substitute trial magistrate shall receive a salary of $800.00 per year.

[(j) In Anne Arundel County the office of substitute trial magistrate shall receive a salary of not less than $1,200.00 per year.]

120.

Every trial magistrate, and judge and substitute judge of the People's Court of Anne Arundel, Montgomery and Prince George's counties, before entering upon his official duties, shall give to the State of Maryland and file with the clerk of the circuit court for the county, a good and sufficient bond, with corporate security to be approved by the county commissioners or county council of the county for which he was appointed or in which the court is located, in the penalty of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), upon the condition expressed in each of said bonds that the said judge or [justice of the peace] magistrate, giving it will truly and faithfully discharge, execute and perform all and singular the duties and obligations of a judge or [justice of the peace] magistrate, and that he will account for and pay over to the county commissioners or county council of the county or to whomsoever else may be otherwise or hereafter designated by law as the proper recipient thereof, all fees, costs, fines, penalties and forfeitures which he is bound to account for and pay over as aforesaid, and that he will faithfully and truly account for and pay over to the person or corporation entitled thereto all money belonging to such person or corporation which may come into his hands as such judge or [justice of the peace] magistrate.

Every justice of the peace other than a trial magistrate or a substitute trial magistrate, and every clerk to a trial magistrate (except in Anne Arundel, Montgomery and Prince George's counties), shall, before entering upon his duties, give a corporate bond similarly conditioned, in the amount of $1,000.

The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles may by regulation require the several trial magistrates to give and file such additional bonds as in his determination shall be advisable or necessary in relation to the amount of fines, forfeitures, penalties and costs imposed and collected by them individually in cases involving violations of the motor vehicle laws. Except as to amount, such additional bonds shall be subject generally to the terms and conditions applying to the several bonds as required by this section.
