

WHEREAS, the disrespectful habits of the traveling public have not improved although stringent laws have been passed to prohibit such littering of public places and many other such laws have been proposed; and

WHEREAS, stringent laws do, in fact, prohibit such littering of public places and provide penalties for violations; and

WHEREAS, the existing laws have not been enforced, otherwise the problem would not have grown to the dimensions which it has reached; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor be and hereby is requested to put new vigor in the attempts to correct the problem presented by directing the heads of the enforcement agencies, including the Commission of Tidewater Fisheries, the Game and Inland Fish Commission, and the Commission of Forests and Parks to institute a program of active enforcement by specifically designating that portion of their enforcement efforts necessary to appreciably control the littering law violations; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution be sent to the Governor, the Commission of Tidewater Fisheries, the Game and Inland Fish Commission, and the Commission of Forests and Parks. .

Approved May 6, 1963.

---

No. 43

(House Joint Resolution 90)

House Joint Resolution expressing sympathy on the death of Raymond A. Fulker.

Mr. Fulker has served as sheriff of Harford County for sixteen years, having just begun his fifth term in office. He was opposed for the office only once in the primary and once in the general election and always led the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Fulker was born in Harford County, and spent all his life in service to the County. He was active in all civic organizations and served as head of the Heart Fund Drive for many years. He was Chief of Police of Bel Air for approximately six years before he was elected to the office of Sheriff.

He was a Director of Commercial and Savings Bank of Bel Air, a Director and Vice President of Bel Air Savings and Loan Association, and a member of the Moose.

Mr. Fulker was loved and respected by everybody who knew him. He gave unflinchingly of himself personally and in his official capacity. He was known to have been one of the best law enforcement officers in the State, and was respected for his management and conduct of the Office of Sheriff.