of the

General Assembly of Maryland

NOTE

Thirty-seven bills were vetoed by the Governor of Maryland following the 1963 Regular Session of the General Assembly. Fourteen of the vetoed bills originated in the Senate, and twenty-three were House Bills.

In addition, several items were vetoed in Senate Bill 139, the Bond Construction Bill, under the Governor's item veto power for such bills which is covered in Section 17 of Article 2 of the Constitution of Maryland.

Following other provisions in the same section of the Constitution, all such vetoed bills (as well as the vetoed items in Senate Bill 139) must be referred to the House in which they originated immediately after the House shall have organized at the next regular or special session of the General Assembly of Maryland, for reconsideration.

A three-fifths vote of the members elected to each House is required to enact a bill (or item) over the veto of the Governor.
