Beginning in the month of January, 1957 and during the month of January in every second year thereafter, every licensed practical nurse registered under the provisions of this subtitle shall cause his or her certificate to be recorded in the office of the State Board of Examiners of Nurses, together with an affidavit, or other proof satisfactory to [said] the Board of Examiners, of his or her identity, as the person to whom the same was issued, and of his or her place of residence at the time of such recordation. The registrants shall pay to the [said] Board of Examiners a fee of two dollars ($2.00) for each such recordation. [The existing provisions of law for the registration of certificates of licensed practical nurses in the month of February of each year and for a registration fee of fifty cents shall continue in effect until December 31, 1956.]

Anyone who shall fail to re-record his or her certificate as provided by this section shall, notwithstanding such failure to record, remain eligible for re-recordation at any time thereafter without examination, upon application for re-recordation and payment of the fees therefor.*

[Said] The Board of Examiners may revoke any certificate for sufficient cause, but before this is done the holder of said certificate shall have thirty days' notice, and after a full and fair hearing of the charges made, by a majority vote of the whole Board, the certificate may be revoked.
