CHAPTER 211

(House Bill 594)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 76 (g) of Article 26 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1957 Edition and 1962 Supplement), title "Courts," subtitle "Juvenile Causes in Montgomery County," to provide that the People's Court judge for Montgomery County for juvenile causes shall have the jurisdiction to try cases of non-support of a wife.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 76 (g) of Article 26 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, (1957 Edition and 1962 Supplement), title "Courts," subtitle "Juvenile Causes in Montgomery County," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

76.

(g) The judge shall have jurisdiction to try cases of non-support of a wife, or of children coming before the court the same as justices of the peace or trial magistrates or other judges of the People's Court of Montgomery County now have in non-support cases, or may hereafter have. He shall have power and authority to enforce obedience to his orders, writs and judgments by attachment and to inflict summary punishment for contempt of court by a fine not exceeding in any one case the sum of $100.00; and make such rules and orders from time to time for the well-governing and regulating of his court and the employees and suitors thereof and under such fines and forfeitures as he shall think fit not exceeding $100.00 for any one offense, some or all of which fine shall go to the State unless the court shall order that the same be paid to the clerk of the court for disbursement to the person or agency having custody of the child or children of the person so ordered to pay for their support.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1963.

Approved March 29, 1963.
